Business Administration Program

B.B.A., Business Administration

The business administration program offers professional education in finance, human resources, leadership and marketing. Effective business management requires subject matter knowledge that is both broad and deep. The business administration program prepares graduates to meet complex technical, economic and social problems and enables them to apply innovative and responsible leadership to the needs of industry and government.

The undergraduate and graduate business administration programs are accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

Minimum Requirements for Business Administration Bachelor's Degree: 120 credits

B.B.A., Economics

The Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Economics is for students who are pursuing a business degree and desire an emphasis in economics. The degree provides insights into the operations of the private and public sectors including the allocation of scarce resources and the production, distribution and consumption of goods and services. Particular focus areas are environmental sustainability, climate change, renewable energy and natural resources, and nonrenewable resources including oil and natural gas.

The economics degree provides students with an overview of the many relevant and interesting fields within the discipline. Students will acquire analytical tools and learn critical thinking skills that enable them to make more informed decisions in their own lives while preparing them for a wide array of exciting opportunities in business, government and/or graduate school.

The economics program is housed in the College of Business and Security Management and is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. Less than 6% of the world's business schools have achieved AACSB accreditation.

Minimum Requirements for the Bachelor's Degree in Economics: 120 credits

MBA, Business Administration

The College of Business and Security Management offers professional education applicable to the fields of management, finance, human resource management, international business, marketing, and scientific and technical management to individuals interested in entering industry or government.

The program prepares graduates to meet the complex problems of the technical, economic and social environment and enables them to provide imaginative and responsible leadership to industry and government.

The UAF program recognizes that competence in the practice of management necessitates education with both breadth and depth. The graduate program is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

All applications will be reviewed to determine if the applicant has the required body of knowledge to begin MBA courses. Those deficient may be required to complete prerequisite modules prior to admission or prior to enrolling in specific courses.

Minimum Requirements for Business Administration MBA: 30 credits
