B.A., M.A. Degrees, Minors

B.A., COMMUNICATION

The communication program teaches students to communicate effectively and ethically in a rapidly changing world characterized by diversity in gender, culture and belief. It offers a comprehensive background in the discipline in preparation for employment or further education. Students majoring in other disciplines find communication electives valuable additions to their programs.

The program is both theoretical and pragmatic, designed to prepare students for the professional workplace or for advanced study.

Communication courses are available online and in the classroom.

Minimum Requirements for Communication Bachelor's Degree: 120 credits

M.A., PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION

The communication program prepares students to handle the challenges of communicating effectively and ethically in a rapidly changing world characterized by diversity in gender, cultural background and belief.

The M.A. in professional communication provides advanced education for individuals in or pursuing communication-related careers in public/nonprofit organizations, media organizations, healthcare organizations or higher education. Courses in Communication acknowledge that communication occurs between people who are diverse in a variety of ways, such as gender identity, cultural background and beliefs, and that such diversity is becoming increasingly apparent in an ever more complex and interdependent global society. The program is both theoretically and pragmatically oriented to prepare students for the professional workplace or for doctoral study in organizations.

Minimum Requirements for Professional Communication M.A. Degree: 33 credits
