

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

To encourage a positive learning environment and high academic standards, universities establish specific scholastic requirements and community rules. At UAF, academic regulations address issues such as grading, academic standing, and student rights and responsibilities. Since policies may change, it is important for students to stay informed about current requirements. By enrolling at UAF, a student agrees to abide by university rules, regulations and academic standards.

- Academic Standards (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/academic-standards/>)
- Appeal of Academic Decisions (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/appeal-academic-decisions/>)
- Attendance (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/attendance/>)
- Class Standing (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/class-standing/>)
- Communication via Email (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/communication-via-email/>)
- Full- or Part-Time Status/Study Load (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/full-part-time-status-study-load/>)
- Grading Policies (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/grades/>)
- Information Release and FERPA (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/information-release-ferpa/>)
- Nondiscrimination Policy and Disclaimer (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/non-discrimination-policy-disclaimer/>)
- Students' Rights and Responsibilities (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/students-rights-responsibilities/>)
- Undergraduate Credit Loads and Overloads (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/undergraduate-credit-load/>)
- Veterans Affairs Educational Benefits, Tuition and Fees (<https://catalog.uaf.edu/academics-regulations/va-educational-benefits/>)